

House Resolution 141 - Introduced

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 141

BY BALTIMORE, DEYOE, WESSEL-KROESCHELL, and HEDDENS

1 A Resolution to honor the Iowa State University's 2 women's volleyball team.

3 WHEREAS, Iowa State University Women's Volleyball
4 Team began play in the 1973 season, mostly at regional 5 tournaments and invitationals; and

6 WHEREAS, the Cyclones began Big 8 volleyball
7 conference play in 1982, and had a program-best second
8 place finish in 1995, the final year of the Big 8
9 conference; and

10 WHEREAS, in that year the Cyclones also made their 11 first appearance in the NCAA tournament; and

12 WHEREAS, since 2005, under head coach Christy
13 Johnson-Lynch, the volleyball program has progressed
14 at a fast pace, compiling after seven seasons a 150-73
15 record under her leadership; and

16 WHEREAS, the Cyclones have earned a spot in the 17 postseason NCAA tournament every year since 2006, 18 culminating in a program-best four-seed in 2011, and 19 have advanced to the Sweet 16 in four of the last 20 five seasons, making it to the Elite Eight twice; NOW
21 THEREFORE,

22 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, That
23 the House of Representatives congratulates the athletes
24 of the Iowa State University Women's Volleyball
25 Team, and their coach Christy Johnson-Lynch for their 26 remarkable skill, zeal, and determination in taking the 27 Iowa State University women's volleyball program to a
28 national preeminent level.
